Enhancing the Moorpark Presbyterian Community

Moorpark Presbyterian Church has grown since its inception, from a small and intimate church where members knew most everything about each other, to our current congregation of about 450. With this growth and the expectation of many more members once the new sanctuary is completed, comes the need to tie us together with a more formalized process. We are developing a database that will hopefully enhance the connection each of us feels for our church and the relationships we are building.

What we hope to do is help one another find common ground, establish resources for assisting each other and promote commerce within the church community. We would like to open lines of communication between not only the members and the church itself, i.e. ministry teams, the deacon board and the session, but also give each of us the opportunity to find out about shared interests, business possibilities and community experience where a person's expertise can be used as a resource for other members. We want to strengthen our church family.

We're looking for everyone to participate in this endeavor. You are encouraged to not only provide answers to the short questionnaire, but expand on them by getting into more complete descriptions about your passions, your community experience or whatever you think might better let other members know more about you.

Who knows! There may be numerous other bird watchers on the patio between services. Or that person you say hello to in passing as you leave Sunday School may also want to go kayaking around Santa Rosa Island.

So please, take ownership of Moorpark Presbyterian Church and make the effort to help enhance our church community. Once you have completed one questionnaire for each member in the household, simply return it to Sheri Alikpala in the church office via email at sheri@moorparkpres.org, or mail it, or put it in the church office or fax it to the church at 529-2790.
